

V-Pod™

Cost-effective display case

The V-Pod case compliments any display space. It can be used in your space as a stand alone podium or combine with a full fabric wrap and enhance the rest of your messaging. Coupled with a unique fabric wrap, you can bring your branding to new heights!

When not anchoring the booth space you can transport countless combinations of display solutions in the V-Pod case. Combining multiple pop-up displays, SEG units or banner stands makes this case a great asset.

Combine other display solutions with the V-Pod case to create an entire environment your audience will remember!
